The mother hadrosaur regurgitates a bolus to feed her young. The runt of the litter tries to eat, but its big siblings peck its face, driving it off.

The hatchling spots you. "Kub," it coos forlornly.

- I feed it and film Mama's reaction.
- I let the hatchling imprint on me and observe its first hour.
- I ignore it to avoid Mama's wrath.
- I keep it from imprinting on me, which would disrupt the mother-baby bond.
